Careful observers of the market believe that prices on Saturday will be on a higher level than they were last Saturday, despite recessions from day to day. The specialties will help the remainder of the list.

Sugar and Brooklyn Rapid Transit were the features of the opening. Two such volcanic spurts as these stocks were in the first quotations are seldom seen simultaneously. Sugar opened at 189 to 177, the close on Saturday having been 172, the highest point ever reached by the stock up to that time. Brooklyn Rapid Transit closed Saturday at 103 7-8. It opened this morning at 109 to 110. These two move-ments have been expected by the Street accounts in the last two weeks.
